

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law is one of the greatest things that has ever happened to the citizens of the state. No more interruptions during dinner or TV viewing to answer unwanted calls. Any federal regulation that would preempt or diminish the effectiveness of the Indiana law would not be in the best interest of the general public.